Why Chinese will continue to travel: COTRI forecasts a +7% increase in Chinese outbound trips for 2020 despite coronavirus

by Professor Dr. Wolfgang Georg Arlt

11 February 2020

Quote:

“Greater China will probably see only a small increase of +3%, given the loss of day-trips which will not be taken anymore as well as the continuing political problems resulting from the Hong Kong SAR unrest and the Taiwan election results in the second half of 2019. For trips beyond Greater China an increase of +9% can be forecasted for the whole year of 2020.”
