Cambodia awaits payday as Hun Sen cozies up to China. Wolfgang Georg Arlt, founder and director of the China Outbound Tourism Research Institute, says Chinese tourists are likely to look upon Cambodia more favorably than they did before as a result of Hun Sen's show of support by Professor Dr. Wolfgang Georg Arlt for Nikkei Asian Review

17th April 2020

Quote:
"What can clearly be said is that in China the government as well as the travelers will look positively at destinations which showed empathy and support during Jan/Feb when the deaths were still concentrated in China, so after it becomes possible again to travel for leisure in the Asia-Pacific Region -- I assume sometime in May -- Cambodia will be one of the countries which will see a new wave of Chinese visitors, maybe bigger than before".

Link to the article:
https://asia.nikkei.com/Politics/International-relations/Cambodia-awaits-payday-as-Hun-Sen-cozies-up-to-China